

Red Bank Catholic High School seeks to hire an educator to teach Latin in the World Language Department. This part-time, 10 month teaching position begins in August 2025. Candidates should be able to actively collaborate with fellow teachers and design learning experiences that encourage inquiry, critical thinking, and creativity. Candidates must be able to incorporate educational technology into the classroom that helps enhance student learning.

Courses within this position encompass the levels of Latin 1 to Latin 3. The ideal candidate would possess a New Jersey State teaching certificate, should be qualified to teach these courses and support a student centered atmosphere.

Please submit your application by December 20, 2024.

Please reply to : cherman@redbankcatholic.com